

Dear Kindergarten Families-

I hope you enjoyed the pictures of the children's <sup>100</sup> Days of Kindergarten projects! Their presentations were also well-done-they were all very prepared and explained their work! I am so proud of their work and effort, but, honestly, cannot really believe how quickly this year has gone! 💜

We had such a fun Valentine's Day Party today! Thank you to all that contributed in some way! 💜

Our Week's Focuses:

ELA-Letter & Sound (Words with -in, -ip, it), Super Words (some, that), Unit Words (ball, go, see, swim,) Blending onset & rime, Identifying medial phonemes; Decoding & Encoding (Reading & Spelling) words with short medial i; Understanding that events and ideas in a text are connected to one another, Using words that describe time-order connections

Math-Count Numbers to 20

Science-Severe Weather: Animals Changing Their Environment

The Week Ahead:

Monday-No School-President's Day-🇺🇸-Enjoy your long weekend!

Wednesday-Library books due. 📖

Thanks to all for the lovely Valentine's Day cards! 💜💜 The children delivered their cards by themselves. If, by accident your child got a card meant for someone else, please just send it into school on Tuesday. Thank you!

Have a wonderful weekend!

XO OX
