Dear Kindergarten Families,

We had such a fun week celebrating reading and Dr. Seuss! Let's keep that love of reading going-remember that Dr. Seuss said, "The more you read, the more things you will know!"

Our Week's Focuses:

ELA-Letter & Sound (Words with -ub, -ug, -un), Super Words (her, when), Unit Words (ball, go, see, swim,) Blending onset & rime, Isolating medial phonemes; Decoding & Encoding (Reading & Spelling) words with short medial u; Understanding that there are different kinds of texts, Identifying the features of various texts (poems, recipes, stories)

Math-Composing and Decomposing Numbers 11 to 19, Counting Numbers to 100

Science-Severe Weather: Sunlight & Warmth

Remember to change your clocks this weekend!  Spring forward!

Wednesday-Library books due.

Friday-Wear your favorite basketball team! (Or any sport!)

Monday, 3/17-Happy St. Patrick's Day!  Wear green!

Have a wonderful weekend!

XO OX
