

My Nightly Reading Log

Name: _____ # _____ Week Of: _____

Reading every night is so important for building your reading skills and stamina. So, you are going to show how often and for how long you are reading each night.

Remember, our class minimum is to read for 20 minutes each night.

Night	Title of the Book	Minutes Read	Spelling Test:
Monday	<hr/> <hr/>
Tuesday	<hr/> <hr/>
Wednesday	Reading Packet
Thursday	<hr/> <hr/>
Total Minutes Read

Expectations:

1. Spell the title correctly and use capital letters in the title. (Ex. Charlie and the Chocolate Factory).
2. Try to stick with the same book from start to finish. There are many reasons you may abandon a book, but most of the time, we want to finish it!

* PARENT SIGNATURE: _____

Reading Conversations Boards

Discussing the books you read is also important in building your reading comprehension skills. Have one (1) conversation about your text with another reader each night. Then, have that reader initial the conversation choice on the "Reading Conversations Board" below.

Color one box per night: Monday - Blue, Tuesday - Green, Wednesday - Yellow, Thursday - Red

FICTION GENRES

What is the problem/conflict in this story/text? X_____	Tell me what happened in the story. X_____	What challenges do you think the characters might face? X_____	What part of the story confused you? What strategy can help you? X_____
What lessons did you learn that you can use in your own life? (theme) X_____	What was the turning point of the story? X_____	How was the setting important to the story? X_____	What do the character's actions/ choices tell you about him/her? X_____
What would you like to ask the author/one of the characters? X_____	What message did the author want you to get? X_____	What signpost did you notice and how did it help you? X_____	Your Choice X_____

NON-FICTION GENRES

Summarize the important information in the book. X_____	Talk about the big idea or message of the book. X_____	What does the writer do to keep you interested? Share an example. X_____	Did the author choose a good title for the book you are reading? Why or why not? X_____
Identify 2 text features you encountered and how they help you as a reader. X_____	How did the author organize the information in the text? (text structure) X_____	What does the writer do to make sure you understand the content of the book from the beginning? X_____	Why do you think the author wrote this book? X_____
What information do you find most surprising? Why? X_____	Talk about why it's important for you to learn about the information in this book. X_____	What signpost did you notice and how did it help you? X_____	Your Choice X_____

If you picked "your choice", what did you discuss? _____